SOROSIS.

Twenty members of the club and one visitor, little Miss Fanny Nail, were made very welcome yesterday afternoon by the hostess, Mrs. J. R. Harris.

President, Mrs. Biggers, called the club to order, promptly at three o'clock, using for that purpose a handsome gavel, the property of Mrs. Harris, but kindly loaned by her to Mrs.
Biggers, until some of "our gentlemen friends" present the club with a gavel.

Roll call responded to with quotations from various authors.
Reading minutes of previous meeting by secretary, Mrs. Joe E.
Mathers. One new member, Mrs.
J. B. Sparks was welcomed by the members. Two names presented for membership at a previous meeting were ballotted on, Mrs. H. B. Johnson and Mrs. E.
L. Dawson, who were unanimously elected members. Two new names were presented for membership. Unfinished and new business taken up and acted upon.

The resignation of Miss Jennie Williams from club membership was accepted with regret. Miss Williams was a charter member of Sorosis, and was president of the club during its second year, and was a most efficient officer.
Always prompt in attendance at club meetings, always an interested student and active worker, and one of the brightest minds in the club. Her absence is very much regretted.

Mrs. Theo Barnhart, is another of the first members of the club, and whose resignation was received with much regret, upon her moving to another town.
Mrs. Barnhart could always be depended upon to fill her place on the program, or as hostess, and many kind and appreciative words are said of her by the club members and many other friends. Mrs. Barnhart was treasurer of the club during its third year.

It was "Indian Territory Day," in the club. A fine paper, prepared and read by Mrs. Ben Hampton, on the "Original Americans, their legends and traditions", brought out much that was new and interesting on the subject. Papers were read by Mrs. E. M. Payne and Mrs.
A. M. Dawson; the former on the mineral resources, and the latter on the agriculture, etc., of this territory. These papers seemed to cover all the ground, and were followed by a conversation by the club on "What education has done for the Indian." It was decided that the Indian is fully as susceptible of imbibing knowledge as would be his white brother, antecedents and environments the same.

The parliamentary drill, led by Mrs. J. R. Harris, and continued from last week, was taken up with energy and kept up until the hour for closing was at hand.

Mrs. Harris is a splendid parliamentarian, and had taken much time and trouble to prepare questions, amendments, etc., for the drill.

I must not disclose club secrets but it is altogether probable that there will be something heard from the "wimmen's" side of the house on the suffrage question and it will be that "we don't want to vote."

Mrs. Franklin Ridgely, critic, is doing splendid work, and the club looks forward to the critic's report as something spicy, tart, sweet and original, although "the mistakes we have made" are the condiments in this desert.

Club adjourned to meet next Wednesday afternoon, October 31st. Mrs. J. W. Light hostess.
Mesdames J. H. Griffin and J. A.
Ware jr., will read papers on respectively:

"The Study of Architecture," and "The origin and customs of Hallowe'en."

Sing a song of penitence a fellow full of rye; four and twenty serpents danced before his eye.
When his eye was opened he shouted for his life, wasn't he a pretty champ to go before his wife? His hat was in the parlor underneath a chair, his boots were in the hallway and his coat was on the stair; his trousers in the kitchen; his collar on the shelf, but he hadn't any idea where he was himself.—Ex.

The Ladies Social Circle of the Presbyterian church will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock sharp at the residence of Mrs. Ben Hampton, for the purpose of continuing work for the Bazaar.
